A Blackfoot man has been reappointed by the state as a flood control district commissioner, the Idaho Department of Water Resources announced today.

Jack A. Olney was reappointed to a three-year term as Division 3 Commissioner for Flood Control District No. 7. Karl J. Dreher, IDWR Director, made the appointment.

Olney will serve a term that runs until January 2005. Flood Control District No. 7 consists of land within the floodplain of the Blackfoot River, extending 12 miles upstream from its confluence with the Snake River.
